November 2024 Chase Park Evangelism Update

We continue to have ongoing Bible studies and covet your prayers for the hearts involved. Please assist us in generating more prospects by praying and inviting folks to services. Chase Park has been wonderful at this, and I am very appreciative of the efforts put forth to share your faith with others.

We have begun a class on Wednesday nights that involves training for those wanting to be more evangelistic. It will prepare them for doing stateside and foreign mission work as well as how to be more effective in local evangelism. The next class will begin the first Wednesday of December.

Tentatively (and Lord willing), our first trip, after these training classes, will be in early June, 2025. We hope to travel to Jonesboro, Arkansas to assist the Lawson Road church of Christ with a VBS and evangelistic campaign. We will have more details in the next few weeks (once we have final confirmation that we are going). If you are interested in helping with this effort, please let me know.

Remember, I love you and want to go to heaven with you.

Pat

Tips for making evangelistic efforts successful:

1. Know your purpose.
2. Involve your whole congregation.
3. Plan carefully but be flexible.
4. Open your eyes to see what God wants to show you.
5. Think Souls First!
