Thank you

Thank you for your thoughts, cards, prayers, and food provided in the loss of our mother. It is wonderful to have such a supporting church family no matter what the distance is.

Terry and Karen (The Bea Moore Family)

Thank you to all those who sent birthday cards for my 90th birthday. I really enjoyed each one. In Christian love,

Hazel Evans (Jan Rowe's mother)

Library News

The following book, MASTERING THE ANCIENT WORLD, written by Beth Brown has been placed in our library. This is an excellent book to be used to study characters, geography and lifestyle of the Old Testament in first-person narratives. Included in the book are questions and colorful maps from each of thirteen lessons.

Peace of God

“Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice! Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.”

Philippians 4:4-7 – Paul’s words to the Philippians will turn them from anxiety to prayer and allow them to be filled with the peace of God. This peace is different from the world’s peace. It is peace that Jesus promised his disciples and all those who would follow him: “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid” (John 14:27). True peace is not found in positive thinking, in absence of conflict, or in good feelings; it comes from knowing that God is in control.

God’s peace surpasses all understanding. We simply cannot comprehend such peace. It is not a natural reaction in calamity, sorrow, or pain. Such peace cannot be self-generated; it comes from God alone; it is His gift to us in a difficult world because of His love for us.

Why does God give his people peace? Because it will guard their hearts and minds. The Greek word for “guard” is a military term that means to surround and protect a garrison or city. The Philippians, living in a garrison town, were familiar with the Roman guards who maintained watch, guarding the city from any outside attack. God’s peace is like soldiers surrounding believers’ hearts and minds (that is, emotions and thoughts), securing them against threatening and harmful outside forces.
