Thank you

"Chase Park Family,

Thank you for all the prayers, love, care and friendship you have shown in the loss of my brother, Malcolm. It has been a comfort at a difficult time. In Christian love,

Colene Horst

"Chase Park Church Family,

Thank you for your thoughtfulness during this sad time in our lives with the loss of our two sisters. It has definitely left a void in our family. We cannot express how grateful we are to all those who came to the visitations and funeral services, sent text messages, made phone calls, and sent cards and prayers. We deeply appreciate all of you. Love,"

Jimmy Strong, Idoia Lewis, and Sandra Moore

"Chase Park Family,

Thanks to so many for your kind expressions of sympathy and caring shown during Bob's illness and subsequent death. So many sentiments that have been expressed, let me know how much you care. I am heartbroken over his passing since he was a wonderful husband and helpful and caring person to so many. An additional note concerning my health. I am a cancer survivor and fighter as I am still undergoing treatments and also have additional health problems which make it very hard to go or move as I would like. I want to encourage all to do all they can to promote the Gospel and not allow anything going on with me to discourage them."

Carol Layne

Happy Father's Day

Today is Father's Day, the day that has been set aside to honor the special men in our lives. When I think of Father's Day, I cannot help but think of two great men that I was privileged to have in my life—my father and grandfather. Each, in different ways, was a wonderful example and role model in my life, and I am so thankful to God for blessing me with them. They taught me how to work hard, overcome adversity, be a devoted husband and father, and be a servant to Christ and His church. Like most of us, I am largely a product of my raising, and I credit much of who I am to these two men who had such a profound influence on me. Both of them have gone on to their eternal reward, but I continue to benefit from their good examples.

But when I think of Father's Day, I also think of God, my heavenly Father. I am constantly amazed that God chose that relationship—to be a father to us because of His love for us and His desire to provide for, protect, and care for us as His children. It is also amazing and humbling to understand that, so important was that relationship to God, He was willing to give His Son as a sacrifice for us in order to make it possible! I am reminded of the inspired words of John in 1 John 3:1: “Behold what manner of love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of God!” What a wonderful blessing it is to have a God who not only created us and rules over this world, but who also looks down on us in love and desires for us to be with Him now and throughout eternity. He is patient, longsuffering, and merciful toward us and is a wonderful Father who cares deeply for each of us.

To all of our fathers, I hope that you have a wonderful day with your family. Thank you for your leadership, example, and dedication to your loved ones. May God bless you and your family. And to all of us as God's precious children, may we ever cherish that most important relationship and be devoted to Him as our Father. May we always strive to honor Him with our lives and desire to share His love with those around us. Thanks be to God for His immeasurable love for each of us as our heavenly Father.
