December 2024 Chase Park Evangelism Update

Not only are there several studies ongoing in Huntsville, but we also have had members and former members doing evangelistic work in other places. Angela Ireland completed a study with the sister of Sonia, who lives in Orlando. She, her brother, and their Dad, traveled to Orlando for Christmas. While there, they all studied and made the decision to put on Christ in baptism.

We have begun a class on Wednesday nights that involves training for those wanting to be more evangelistic. It will help prepare them for doing stateside and foreign mission work, as well as how to be more effective in local evangelism.

I spoke this week with the men at the Lawson Road congregation while Maria and I went to see Sarah, Chandler, and Rilla. I also spoke with the Lodge where most of us will be staying during our mission trip to Jonesboro, AR. The dates are locked in for our reservation, so if you have not spoken to Will or I about wanting to be involved, please do so as soon as possible because we will have a set number of people who can stay at the Lodge.

Please pray for the studies that are ongoing locally, as well, that those “seeking” will make the decision to put on Christ in baptism.

Remember, I love you and want to go to heaven with you.

Pat

More Tips for making evangelistic efforts successful:

6. Be a blessing, not a burden.
7. Go to serve, not to take a vacation.
8. Respect the people and the culture.
9. Eat the food.
10. Make a long-term commitment to the mission location.
11. Open your eyes to see what God wants to show you.
