"Chase Park Family,
I have been so blessed over the years by this family of Christians. Especially now after my recent foot surgery and the health issues of my son Stephen, daughter-in-law Courtney, and baby girl Deck (due in September) you again have shown compassion. Thank you so much for your continued prayers for us as we all heal the next several months. In addition, I also appreciate the many cards, calls, meals, and the acts of kindness shown me during this long recuperation period. Sending food gave Rex a break from all he has had to do for me and has shown him what a great extended family he has here at Chase Park. Love you all!"

Chase Park Evangelism Update June 2024

Think Souls First

In the last 4 days (I am writing this from North Carolina on Thursday), we have had two baptisms, both of which were the result of our Chase Park family encouraging the ones who decided to put on Christ in baptism. Alli Beth Peacock was baptized by her dad, Brian, Sunday after evening services. Please let Alli Beth know you are proud of her and the best decision she could ever make. It is now our job to encourage her and help her as she begins her walk with Christ.

The second baptism was of John Young who was baptized Thursday afternoon by Rusty. John is Caroline's husband and if you remember she herself was just baptized this past March. It takes the combined efforts of our whole congregation to encourage and help those who are considering putting on Christ in baptism. The more welcome and loved a person feels, the more likely they will obey the gospel at the right time. Of course, Alli Beth, and her family have been a part of Chase Park for many years and we rejoice in her parent's good example and the encouragement of her peers and those who have taught her over the years.

John has been attending services and studying for about two months and everyone that has interacted with him has made him feel right at home, as it should be. You are to be commended for helping "make the paths straight" to those who are trying to come to Jesus (John 1:23).

Remember, I love you and want to go to heaven with you.
