Library News

The book, Stay Tuned; What Every Parent Should Know about Media, written by Philip Patterson, Ph. D., would be a good follow-up book from Rusty's lessons on "Cultural Christianity" for parents or anybody who uses social media to read. Although this book was written several years ago, it stresses the fact that for their own survival, media companies will use anything, no matter how immoral or violent to get their users to "stay tuned" to what they are watching.

What I Saw at the Chase Park Vacation Bible School...

This past week was Vacation Bible School for our Chase Park children. We had a great turnout with our biggest day having 130 people in attendance. We enjoyed Bible class, singing, fellowship, games, scavenger hunts, food, and discussion with one another. Our teens and VBS workers did a tremendous job in making our VBS a success! Personally, I was spiritually uplifted throughout the week by several things I saw taking place during the week that I would like to share with you.

I saw a group of students who were eager to be together. Each morning there was an excitement amongst our children and parents. The joy of being together and longing to have VBS once again. We started each day at 9:15 a.m. and ended around 10:00 p.m. each night. It was a long day, but being together was rewarding and uplifting. The friendships that were built and strengthened was great to experience. Lets face it...the past year has been hard on all of us. This week helped renew our relationships with one another.

I saw a group of students who were helpful. In order to accomplish a VBS you must have volunteers who are willing to serve. We have some wonderful teenagers at Chase Park who have continually impressed me with their work ethic. This past week our teenagers served as classroom guides, leaders/mentors, kitchen and lunch workers, trash collectors, game workers, scavenger hunt guides, etc. Whatever task was placed before them they seemed to accomplish it without hesitation. This type of work ethic is highly appreciated and rare in our world today. I cannot express my thankfulness enough to our young people and families for their efforts. This week was a success because of your hard work and zeal. THANK YOU!

I saw a group of students who were listening and learning. We had two VBS tracks taking place this week. The mornings were the Children's Track. Our children learned about the Parables of the Lost Sheep, Coin, and Son. What a joy it is to have our children sitting and participating in a Bible class at the feet of excellent Bible teachers. The Teen Track took place each afternoon. The theme for their week, "When Life Is Too Much to Handle." Classes were taught on the Power of God, Friendship and Prayer. Such wonderful lessons in how we are not alone and can utilize these three powerful forces during life's struggle. During our evening worship we focused on the theme, "My Journey." We learned about Overcoming the Unknown, Making the Right Decisions Now, and The Joy of Walking Down Heaven's Road. These lessons required a lot of thought and soul searching as we dove into God's word together. Their focus and dedication as they listened intently and gleaned from each study was very impressive.

I saw a group of students who loved praising God. Perhaps my favorite event this week was the evening singing sessions. On Wednesday, several teens, parents, children, and Chase Park members were in the dining room singing. We sang for almost an hour. On Thursday night we had 50 people gather outside under the Portico enjoying the sunset singing praises to our God. I found myself thinking..."Is this what Heaven will be like?" To have the opportunity to sing with the saints praising the Almighty God, brethren it just doesn't get any better.

All in all this was a successful VBS week. I'm thankful for our eldership in allowing us to have VBS. I'm thankful to our VBS workers who worked tirelessly at their stations with our children. I'm thankful for the children who brought so much energy and excitement each day. I'm thankful for our parents who came to help serve and/or allowed their children to attend this wonderful spiritual event. I'm thankful to our young people who spent numerous hours serving as mentors, students, workers, etc. This week was truly a wonderful week of Vacation Bible School.

Let us keep hold of the words of Galatians 6:9-10, "Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers."
