Do People Know Who I Am? ... John 13:34-35

Have you ever wondered what people thought of you? Perhaps this thought is on your mind when you are around others. What do my friends say about me? What do my coworkers think of me? Do people know who I really am?

In John 13:34-35, Jesus tells his disciples to “love one another, as I have loved you... by this (love) all people will know you are my disciples”. Jesus said if you show a spirit of love toward others then they will know you are a follower of Him. The question is, what type of person do my neighbors see? Do people know you are a disciple of Christ? Do your teammates know that you are a Christian? Do your coworkers know that you love the Lord?

Christ tells us people will know who we are by the way we live and act. I want people to know that I am a Christian, a lover of God’s word, a family man, a faithful husband, an encouraging teammate, a joyful neighbor, a friendly coworker, a helper in a time of need. All of these qualities are true and are clearly seen if I have the love of Christ dwelling in me. I end with this challenging question, “Do People Know Who I Am?”.
